

Imperial Waterways of Russia

St. Petersburg to Moscow June 23rd-July 5th, 2012

Follow the path of Peter the Great from Moscow to St. Petersburg and discover the heart of Russia. The Volga River, Europe's largest and longest waterway, holds a special place in Russian history and in the hearts and minds of the Russian people.

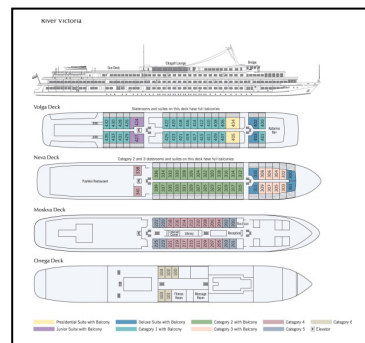

Join Ingrid English of Gulliver's Travel for this beautiful River Boat Cruise on the Volga River aboard the River Victoria

Priced from $4810.00 per person/double –cat 4. Incl port taxes ($2099/single supplement)
INQUIRE ABOUT THE EARLY BOOKING & FULL PAYMENT DISCOUNTS
PAST PASSENGER DISCOUNT IS $100.00 PER PERSON
(Air is approx. $1700-2200 from LAX)

Cruise includes: 12-night cruise in a river view stateroom on the lovely River Victoria

- All meals onboard, prepared using the finest and freshest ingredients
- 12 breakfasts, 11 lunches, 12 dinners
- Captain's Welcome Gala and Farewell Dinners
- Complimentary soft drinks during lunch onboard; complimentary fine wines, choice of beer, and soft drinks during dinner onboard; bottle water in your stateroom; and 24-hour specialty coffee and tea bar
- 11 shore excursions, fully hosted by English-speaking local guides
- An experienced Cruise Manager and attentive, English-speaking staff
- State-of-the-art Quietvox portable audio headset system on all shore excursions
- Captivating onboard local entertainment
- Signature Lectures on Russian civilization and history
- All transfers on arrival and departure day

Note: Cruising in Russia is a wonderful experience, and while the River Victoria is a friendly and comfortable Russian-style ship, its amenities may differ from those of a Uniworld company-owned ship.

81 Higuera Street, Ste 150, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

805-541-4141

www.slogull.com

805-541-4832-fax

Cst# 20-10100-10